CAPITOL CAROLS

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

Memorial from the Georgia Press on the Tariff on Pulp, &c.—Donnelly v. Washburne—The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill—Full Report.

By Telegraph to the News.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Gordon presented a memorial of the press association of Georgia in reference to the oppressive tariff on pulp, &c. Referred.

Blair presented the views of the minority of the committee on alleged frauds in the late election on the subject of disfranchisement in Rhode Island. Laid on the table.

Platt said that as he was not now a member of that committee he could not sign the minority report, but as a former member thereof he wished to state that he fully concurred in the report.

At the expiration of the morning hour the Senate resumed the consideration of the Kellogg-Spofford resolutions. Mr. Hampton, of South Carolina, having the floor. Mr. Hampton, was not a lawyer but proposed to discuss the matter on generally recognized principles of justice and right, endeavoring to free himself from partisan feeling. There were cases and this was one where Senators should lay aside sectional prejudices and party allegiance. He did not impute to Mr. Spofford or his friends any improper motives and therefore he was pained to differ from them and from his party associates with whom he held so many views in common, they would at least credit him with sincerity in this difference. Mr. Kellogg's credentials were presented in January, 1877, and referred to the committee in March. Mr. Spofford's were presented in October. Both parties consented to the consideration of certain evidence taken by the other investigating committees. The Senate also passed a resolution authorizing the committee to take full original evidence. There was no doubt that the committee have full authority to investigate all the merits of the case. Mr. Spofford at one time filed the request for more evidence, which was denied by Cameron on the ground that sufficient testimony had been taken. This ruling Mr. Hampton thought unjust, but it was undoubtedly fully competent for Cameron to decide when to stop taking testimony. If a committee abuses its power in this respect an appeal can be taken to the Senate. The Senate at that time announced its deliberate judgment that Mr. Kellogg was entitled to his seat, yet it is now claimed that that action had no binding effect. Mr. Hampton could not admit the principle that the settlement of the contested case or its merits could be over thrown at will, upon occasion of the majority of the deficient party. If this case can be re heard, now what is to prevent its being heard again and again. In all litigation there must be some end of strife and in the spirit of the law this case should rest where it is. Mr. Hampton then quoted a number of authorities and precedents in this country and England, to show that it was well established on the principle that when the case was once settled upon its merits it could not be re opened, the consequence of leaving titles to seats forever open to question were more disastrous than to have an occasional case wrongly settled. The whole weight of authority seemed to Mr. Hampton to show that the Senate acted judicially, and that its action was final. He had carefully avoided a political aspect of the case. He dared not trust himself to enter too deeply into that question. All his sympathies were with the contestant and with the State of Louisiana; which had suffered so great a wrong, the Senate had no power to redress that wrong. Time, the great healer, could alone assuage her wounds. He hoped the people of that State, with whom his own people had so much in common, would not misconstrue his action. At the conclusion of Mr. Hampton's speech Carpenter took the floor and occupied the remainder of the afternoon with an argument in the support of Kellogg's right to this seat. The Senate then adjourned. The Debate will be continued to-morrow by Pendleton, who obtained the floor at the conclusion of Carpenter's remarks.

HOUSE.

The House met at 10:30 in continuance of Wednesdays session. The speaker announced the appointment of Culberson, of Texas, as a member of the committee to investigate the alleged corruption in the contested election case of Donnelly vs. Washburn, in place of Reagan, of Texas, resigned. The House then went into a committee of the Whole, with Cox, of New York, in the chair, on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. Owing, perhaps, to the small attendance of members, the reading of the bill was not interrupted until the clause was reached relating to the officer of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and at this point Dibrell, of Tennessee, offered the amendment providing the salaries of the storekeeper and guagers at all distilleries that mash less than 60 bushels of grain per day shall not exceed fifty dollars a month while the distilleries are in operation and thereby five dollars when not in operation, and at all other distilleries storekeepers and guagers shall not receive exceeding 50 dollars while the distilleries are not in operation. Baker, of Indiana, opposed the amendment as seeing the effect of it would be to injure the faithful and honest administration of Internal Revenue service. The vote on the amendment resulted in 51 to 31, and the point of no quorum was raised by Baker. A call of the roll was then ordered, which showed the presence of the quorum question as recurred upon the amendment, which Garfield characterized as the "moonshine amendment" and it was agreed, by 81 to 68.

Dr. O'Hagan moved that the matter relative to the remittance of Dr. McL Graham's dues be laid upon the table Carried.

Not a Machine Poet.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, who cannot help being witty, denies that the spirit of poetry in him is mechanical, to be had by the mere turning of a crank. A young lady wrote to him that a literary society of which she is a member war about to discuss his life and writings, and it would enliven the proceedings if he would send a little poetical contribution for the occasion. Dr. Holmes replied in his gentle way that if the young lady only knew how many letters he had to write every day she would say, "Poor, dear man, how tired he must be." "We that make rhymes," he added, "are expected to turn them on as you turn on water through a faucet—whenever it is wanted. But writing poetry is like shooting ducks or geese—you may load up and paddle off and watch all the morning, and never see duck or goose, except yourself as reflected in the water." This marks the difference between real poets. The latter, however, never waste their ammunition, for all their ducks are dead.

West Va., Republican Convention.

By Telegraph to the News.

WHEELING, WEST VA., May 13.—A. W. Campbell, was elected delegate at large. A contest occurred in the selection of Delegates in the 3rd District. Two reports were made, a majority by the Sherman men, and the minority by the Blaine men. A motion to adopt a minority report gave rise to a long and excited debate, but was finally carried. Delegates to Chicago, were instructed to vote for Blaine.

The Strikes.

By Telegraph to the News.

LONDON, May 11.—About 12,000 weavers at Blackburn struck yesterday and a greater part of the remainder will probably quit work to-day but the element of bitterness which characterized the East strike is not present in this one nor is it certain that a majority of the weavers would have decided in favor of the strike had the question been submitted to ballot. An early disintegration of the strike therefore is expected.

A JARVIS JAVELIN.

INTERESTING LETTER ON THE GUBERNATORIAL QUESTION.

A Representative Democrat's Views on the Political Situation—Western Republicans to Vote for Jarvis and the East Enthusiastic—Jarvis and Holt the Watchword.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

GREEN County, May 10—As there is a great deal of talk now concerning the Gubernatorial Candidates, you will permit one, whose business brings him in contact with men of every opinion, and who has travelled the State from the mountains to the seaboard, to say a word in relation to the people's choice to the high and responsible office of Governor of this grand old commonwealth. In the Eastern part of the State I have found the people for Jarvis in the proportion of about ten to one. In some few places I have found a majority of the politicians for Fowle. No other name is mentioned at all except occasionally some personal friend of some other distinguished man has expressed individual preference. And even then, he will declare that he believes the strong man politically, to be Thos. J. Jarvis. Correspondents occasionally speak of Gov. Vance as having carried Jarvis through the last campaign The people of the East deny this, and point to Jarvis's fourteen hundred votes more than Vance's in the State as proof. Remember I am only saying what the people talk; for I am one of Zeb Vance's greatest admirers, and would say nothing to make him second best to any man. In the west, the name of Jarvis is spoken almost with enthusiasm. The sale of the W. N. C. Rail Road with the pledge for its early completion has rallied to his standard, strong men even in the Republican party, and I believe that no man in the State can create one-half the enthusiasm in the West, than the name of Jarvis can. I talked with several prominent men among the Republicans of the West, and many of them declared their determination to vote for him, if he was a candidate. The Republicans of the East will of course support their nominee, be he white or black. Now, as one who loves his state, I declare my honest opinion, from what I have heard among the people of the State, that Thos. J. Jarvis is the only man who can bring together the majority we gained in 1876. And furthermore, that, neither Fowle, nor any other politician can at this election, poll the vote that Jarvis can. Nor do I believe that any of them can approximate it. In New York, where business takes me twice a year for three or four months, there is less talk of the Presidential election than of the North Carolina election. And the merchants who have gone to purchase their Spring stock are almost unanimous for Jarvis. The New Yorkers therefore are extremely anxious for his nomination, as it will be an argument to them to take their strongest man, I admire Judge Fowle, and would be glad to vote for him under any other circumstances, but, believing as I do, that the power of North Carolina Democracy will be increased by the nomination of Gov. Jarvis, I honestly think no other name ought to come before the Convention: but that he should be nominated by acclamation. So as to make his already overwhelming popularity irresistible, and thus strengthen the hands of our friends in other States, who have harder battles to fight, but giving them the moral effect of a victory won before the battle is fough. Talk not of probabilities—what I have said are certainties' I do not believe that the Republicans of the West will allow their Convention to nominate a man against Jarvis. So many of them have declared their intention to vote for him that, to nominate a candidate against him, would be their own party's death. And no sane man believes that they would be willing to ruin their own party on the eve of a Presidential contest, especially when they have declared that they can carry the State for Grant. But they will concentrate their efforts to defeat the balance of the ticket. Therefore, I sincerely hope that the Democracy of our good old State will nominate for Lieutenant Governor, that whole-souled and popular son of Alamance, Col. T. M. Holt. His name is hailed with an enthusiasm second only to that with which they shout the name of Jarvis. Put Jarvis at the head of the ticket with Holt as second and you will see how enthusiastically the East and the West will crowd to our banner, and, my word for it that, on that eventful November day, the Western sun will set upon the most triumphant victory the Democracy has ever won in this grand old State. Then let personal preferences be laid aside and let us nominate Jarvis and Holt by acclamation, and we shall be as irresistible as the avalanche. Now let our watchword be, "Jarvis and Holt, our country and victory!"

COMMERCIAL TRAVELER.

Letter from Harnett.

HARRINGTON, May 12.—Weather warm and cloudy. Rain needed to make the cotton come up. Farmers are complaining of rust in wheat though it is hoped that being so late it will not damage the crops to any great extent. Nearly all the cotton crop is planted and the acreage is fifty per cent more than last year, and guano used in the same proportion.

Married in Upper Little River township by N. Ray Esq., William Black to Miss Margaret McDonald.

The diptheria has broken out again in this section but no deaths as yet so far as I learn.

There is so many men ready to sacrifice themselves by serving their county in the different offices, that I will not name any of them but will let you know who are the lucky ones after the Convention.

Rev. Jas. McQueen, has concluded his communions at the churches of St. Andrews, Mt Pisgah and Barbecue.

Wake Politics.

Hale's Weekly of the 4th and 11th inst.

A number of Wake county Democrats, probably two hundred, met at Metropolitan Hall on Saturday in response to the call for a county convention to appoint delegates to the State and District Conventions. It was unfortunate that the only delegates present, so far as appeared, were the townspeople, who were appointed by the township committee en masse, the only qualification being Democracy. Unfortunate, because this made it necessary for a Democratic meeting to be run one while as a meeting, and another while as a convention of delegates, a call for whose credentials was ruled "out of order." The meeting was of one way of thinking, the convention of another. That is to say, the meeting apparently voted down resolutions instructing delegates to vote as a unit for Judge Fowle in the State Convention, and the Convention passed them. There is no doubt whatever that a majority of Wake Democrats are in favor of the nomination of Judge Fowle for Governor, and a greater majority in favor of Judge Cox for Congress, as the resolutions adopted state, and it is to be regretted that there was not a properly constituted and properly conducted convention to declare a fact so well known and so natural that no friend of Gov. Jarvis had the slightest intention or desire to contest it. Some very unpleasant and some very ludicious scenes and some very unfortunate speeches about the necessity of going into the county and outside the town to find a true Democrat, and about people not born here meddling in county matters, would then have been avoided.

Such speeches are unfortunate, for the town Democrats are as true as the county Democrats, and about two-thirds of the towns-people were born elsewhere. It will not do to forget that what is now in fact the City of Raleigh was only so on the statute books a few years ago when Raleigh was generally known to the people as Wake Court House. Folks have moved here from all parts of the State and from other States, the village has become a City, and the people who have made it a City don't like to be treated as carpet-baggers.

But let us all forget this unfortunately-run meeting as soon as possible. We refer to it only to warn that the Democracy of Wake hereafter go upon and under the Democratic plan of organization which has been in force since 1872. Thus they will avoid all chance of disturbance and all cause of offence.

We have no votes to lose, but votes will be lost just so surely as we transgress the wisley-established rules of our party organization. When we tread in the old paths we know just where we are going; when we stray off into new paths we go at once into danger and into darkness' and only evil can come of it.

May 11th. There are certain well-known rules established for the government of the Democratic party and the maintenance of its organization. If these are disregarded and organization broken down, the party's break-down will speedily result. The Democrats of Wake have begun the canvass, or have had it begun for them, without regard to party law, and a properly constituted Convention of delegates, to properly declare the will of the Democratic people of Wake, would not be amiss. Doubtless that will is and will be declared to be in favor of the nomination of Judge Fowle for Governor and of Judge Cox for Congress, but it may be "done decently and in order," and in that way which will entitle Wake's delegates to seats in the State and District Conventions. The last man to correct a mistake is ordinarily the man who makes it. But surely no false pride will prevent the Democracy of Wake from making speedy and full correction of errors, hastily committed, but mischievous now and possibly the cause of great future evil here and elsewhere. Already, to-day, in this city, and among the newly elected Aldermen, exist the natural consequences of disregard of party discipline. Not one tittle of the party law should be allowed to fail in any part of the State. Least of all should that law be neglected here at party headquarters, the home of so many leaders of the Democracy, and the abiding place of the Democratic State Central Committee. Surely this is not the place for the work of disorganization and consequent disintegration to begin.

A Lancaster young lady playfully threw her arm around the waist of a young lady friend, and a pair of scisors hanging therefrom severed an artery in her arm and she nearly bleed to death. This accident should teach young ladies that throwing arms around the female waist is a dangerous piece of business that should be performed solely by the male sex. The latter are strong and brave and don't mind having an artery severed now and then for the good of the cause.—Norristown Herald.

The Jetties a Success.

A corps of engineers from the Texas and Pacific and New Orleans Pacific railroad has just reported the result of a thorough inspection recently made of the Eads jetties at the mouth of the Mississippi river. The report states that the South Pass, which five years ago was not navigable for vessels drawing over six feet: is now a magnificent stream one thousand feet in width, with a central channel varying from two hundred and fifty to five hundred feet in width, where twenty-six feet is the least depth on the outer edges, and where thirty five feet is the average prevailing depth of the middle. This channel, also, has projected itself beyond the jetties, for at a distance of five hundred feet outside the sea-walls there is a well-defined channel one thousand feet in width, with a depth of twenty-six feet on the edge and of thirty-two and thirty seven feet in the centre.

Jarvis or Fowle?

Robesonian.

Our County Convention last Monday developed the fact that our county was far from being unanimous for either Jarvis or Fowle, and a resolution to instruct for the latter was voted down. We are of the opinion that our people or a majority of them, would gladly support Jarvis, if they could be convinced that he is a strong man before the people: that is to say, if he is an able, popular orator and stump speaker His administration is almost universally applauded; his record since the war highly commended, and it is in the interest of success in the campaign that any other could take precedence. A gentleman who for many years has been a trusted and faithful leader of the Democratic party, and who is well acquainted with Jarvis, declared recently: "From my own personal knowledge of public men in North Carolina, it is my honest conviction that there is no man in this State, now before the public in home affairs under whose lead I would sooner enter a canvass than Thos. J. Jarvis. He is a success as an organizer and canvasser.

Gen. W. R. Cox.

Warrenton Brief Mention.

We are delighted to learn, as we do from the papers of that District, that Gen. Cox will be nominated for Congress in the Raleigh District. In our opinion, no truer, nobler, better, more deserving man than Gen. W. R. Cox lives within the borders of the State. It is a fitting tribute to the private worth, and a just reward for the faithful and efficient public services of this sterling Democrat.

GUBERNATORIAL GUSH

A BATCH OF LETTERS FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.

What the People say and how they say it—Numerous Letters from Various Counties—The Crops—State of Trade and Views on the Political Situation.

WINTON May, 8th—Having nothing else to do this morning I've concluded to pen you a few lines. Our farmers are as busy as bees. More cotton is being planted in this country than last year, from what I can hear the acreage will be much greater in this state than any year since the war. I am sorry to see our people buying so much guano. They are buying more of this farmer-destroying compound than formerly. This buying guano, raising all cotton and not enough corn for bread, in fact buying everything we eat, will as surely bankrupt the farmer as day is certain to follow night. The fishermen are "cutting off their nets, ie, stopping fishing for this season. Not near so many herrings were caught this season as last, but more shad. Dr. Capehart, of Avoca, has cleared fifteen thousand dollars on his fisheries the present season. He is a thorough business man and very clever besides. Politics is beginning to agitate our people. Gov. Jarvis is the choice of this county for Governor with Col Thomas M. Holt for Lieutenant Governor. The nomination of Jarvis is equivalent to an endorsement of the sale of the W. N. C. Railroad and all our people were eager for that. As to Col. Holt, he is a man of wealth and experience, having served in the N. C. Senate. He is a successful business man and I believe that a man who can succeed for himself can succeed for his State. He is a cultivated hightoned gentleman and as true to the Democratic faith as the needle is to the pole. The office of Lieutenant Governor is one of honor only, Such an office can only be held by a man of means. A poor man can't afford to give his business as he would necessarily be compelled to do if elected. I don't think there will be any doubt about the east going for Jarvis and Holt, the other part of the ticket dosen't seem to concern the people much. It is thought that Capt. Shotwell wont be available for Auditor on account of his Kuklux record.

Your well wisher.

EASTERN VOTER.

WARREN.

WARRENTON, May 7th.—The weather for the past two weeks has been rather cold for the season, though pleasant.

Trade for the season we suppose is fair. No marriages, parties wishing to join themselves in that state, we suppose, have deferred until the Fall.

On Monday last a municipal election was held with the following result:

For Mayor, D B Williams; for town Commissioners, Aaron Owens, col., M C McCraw, Jno A Johnson, col., Jas M Ransom, col., W J Norwood, D J Ward, col., and P W Green. There was no electioneering, there being no opposition ticket.

We are not warranted in speaking the sentiments of this county for the candidates for Governor and Congress.

We think the wheat crop is considered very fair.

No runaways, fires, etc., to distrub the quiet of the place.

We are informed that a dance will take place at the Carolina House tonight. Some time has elapsed since anything of this kind has occurred in our town.

The colored children of this place celebrated the May-day, with the general ceremonies, parading the streets in the May day customs, and eating sweetmeats afterward. We learn that some of the white children celebrated the same with a pic-nic—very much to their satisfaction and enjoyment.

We are informed that some of our business men will remove soon to Durham, to engage in business. That thriving town is calculated to attract men of business capacity, We learn that some firm from this State will settle in our midst. The population of this town we can say is very fluctuating.

G.

CARTERET.

BEAUFORT, May 10th.—The time for holding of the Democratic Conventions, to nominate our State and Congressional candidates is not far distant. It behooves us to select our strongest and best men, to fill the various positions. I would not say any thing disparaging of the other worthy gentlemen spoken of for Governor, when I say, that T. J. Jarvis' fitness is unexcelled; every position held by him, he has filled with credit to himself and honor to the State.

Well do the people remember, during the Session of the Legislature in 1868-'69, how he stood almost alone and battled against corruption and vice. There is not a man in North Carolina who is at all conversant with the times, since reconstruction, that is forgetful of the heroic deeds of T. J. Jarvis. As a citizen he was ever honest, as a soldier he was brave and true, as Governor, he is capable, acceptable and without reproach. We think the Convention will be slow to recognize the policy of turning out a true, tried and trusted official, simply to gratify the ambitions of untried aspirants.

For Secretary of State we would suggest the name of the Hon. C. C. Clark, of Craven, who has ever stood erect and glorious in his manhood, a model type of a true son of North Carolina; has always in the dark hours of adversity, as well as in the bright hours of prosperity, been steadfast and true, never when opportunity afforded, failed to let his voice, clear as a bugle blast, be heard in cheering the true men to victory. He is a man who is controlled by principal and conscientious notions and is one of the formost lawyers in Eastern North Carolina.

The name of A. A. McCoy of Sampson county, has been prominently brought forward as a candidate for Congress for this District. There is no man in the District, (except I may say Col. Waddell, who is not a candidate) the people of Carteret prefer, to Judge McCoy.

There has been but very little said about who would be most likely to besent to the Legislature from this county, but enough is known that W. F. Howland, is the choice of our people for Senator.

With Jarvis for Governor, Clark for Secretary of State, McCoy, for Congress, Howland for Senator, Carteret would roll up a majority for them as she has never given before.

WAKE.

SWIFT CREEK, N. C. May 12th 1880.—We had a jolly old fishover to Clemmon's mill, and the only missing man was the Editor of NEWS; but, I his representative did full justice both to solids and fluids which were laid out on the occasion. The fish caught, after eating what we needed, weighed about eight pounds and were presented to the representative of the NEWS, (in a formal speech, by Barney Jones; it was a supposition that those fish were entrusted to the care of your reputation, to be delivered to the chief of our paper, but what is the difference? The Orange county, representative present at this big fish did not think it presumptious to advocate the nominations and sustaining of a full Durham ticket, they say, as your correspondent believes, that Durham is not only the manufacturing town of N. C. but has the only men capable of using the manufacturing interest. Durham's manufacturers can step to the top of the State Government ladder without hesitating to go up round by round, and the ticket proposed by them, and which, I am pretty sure that the representatives of the State Convention will consider is, W. T. Blackwell, for Governor, Julian Carr; Lieutenant Governor, H. A. Reams, Auditor, E. J. Parrish, Secretary of State, Maring, Attorney General, Col. Wilkerson, Treasurer. If this ticket is nominated and elected, Durham proposes to come down en masse and help Raleigh elect its municipal officers on any needy occasion.

Grain crops are looking fairly well; cotton is coming up; the stand is good. Rain is needed badly, gardens are suffering; chickens are hatching, and bees are making honey. S. T. G.

GUILFORD.

GREENSBORO, May 10.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the Guilford County Bible Society, whose labors have been of marked good in moulding the minds of the people. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read, showing the Society to be in a healthy condition, out of debt some funds and books on hand to the value of near a hundred dollars, and the county in the past few years having been thoroughly canvassed from house to house and all supplied with the word of God.

Rev. C. H. Wiley, Bible Agent of North and South Carolina, was present, preached a sermon, and presented the Bible cause, the congregations of the city uniting, a collection was taken, the amount of which I did not learn. Mr. Wiley reports that during last year there were under his employ in his field sixteen colportuers for the American Bible Society who visited over 26,000 families in the year and that 25,000 volumes of the scriptures were distributed in these two States in the same time, one fourth of the families visited were found to be without the word of God. This word is now being distributed by this society in over 300 different languages in the world. At night he told the Presbyterian people something of the strength of Samson as narrated in the Bible.

To-day has been simply a "big day." The morning sun shone very softly under some clouds, and at an early hour people began to arrive from remote parts of the county and other counties, amongst whom I noticed Hons. J. M. Leach, F. C. Robbins and J. H. Wilborne of Lexington, others from Asheboro, Winston and all around.

At ten A. M. the Greensboro Brass Band called the people together, arrangements in detail having been made by the ladies and the line of march was formed before 11, and such a vast assemblage has never met on such an occasion here before, and to more fully convince the reader I will say there were from 75 to 100 vehicles from the omnibus down in line, beside the thousands on foot.

The sevices were opened at the grounds, with a beautiful sympathetic prayer by Rev. Dr. Jones, of Greensboro Female College, after which the Greensboro Quartette Club sung a beautiful song entitled, "Rest, Soldier Rest," their voices blending in sweet accord. Then Jno. Barringer, Esq., in an eloquent manner, introduced the speaker of the day, Hon. D. G. Fowle whose eloquence held his audience spell-bound for some half to three-quarters of an hour. I shall not attempt even an outline of his remarks. I could not do justice. The ladies deserve great credit for their energy in securing so able an orator, and the people have shown their appreciation in closing business and attending en masse.

The Methodist excursion to Charlotte was largely attended, but not sufficient to pay expenses, $300 having to be paid for the train, thereby causing a loss of $74 to them. One of the excursionists from Lexington seems to have died suddenly while at Charlotte.

The good Templar Lodge of this city gave a most pleasant sociable in their hall last Wednesday night, refreshments being served of various kinds.

In Memoriam.

WHEREAS—Our Heavenly Father in his divine wisdom, has removed from our midst, Brothers John D. McMillan and Beauregard Crocker, at one and the same time, and to us, under startling and unexpected circumstances, coming to their death on Thursday, May 6th inst., in their heroic attempts to save a Sister from a watery grave, therefore be it

Resolved—That while we bow in submission to the divine will of our Great Master, yet we deeply mourn the death of both, and one as much as the other, of our young brothers so suddenly called from among us

Resolved—That we tender our heartfelt sympathies for our Bro. Dr. McMillan, his wife and family, to the Brothers, Sisters and concourse of relatives of Bro. Beauregard Crocker.

Resolved—That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the respective families of the deceased brethren.

Resolved—That in the death of our Worthy Marshal Bro. John D. McMillan, and also of Bro. Beauregard Crocker, Hickman Lodge No. 1, and the temperance cause, has lost two active temperance workers, and noble Good Templars.

Resolved—That in the mutual friendship nurtured and matured by the deceased brethren, so true in life, courageous in death, borne to their last resting place side by side, and sleeping together in the same grave, they have left us a noble example which we cherish, and pledge ourselves to keep their memories sacred.

Resolved—That the badge of mourning be worn for thirty days.

Resolved—That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge

A Most Disagreeable Outcome.

Philadelphia Telegraph.

It is likely that our free and easy system of government never had a more disagreeable outcome than this man Kalloch. And yet he was an entirely natural result.

Grant's Columns Weakening.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The alleged calmness of such great Grant leaders as Conkling, Logan and Cameron is what surprises the country. The lofty wave of the hand and the sententious pooh pooh when news comes from the front that the Grant columns are weakening is worth a great deal, but it will be observed that Mr. Blaine is making his bank account tell on the skirmish lines.

Changes in Southern Life and Manners.

Memphis Avalanche.

It is customary to assert that political, social and industrial conditions are slow to change in the South. The contrary is the truth. In no country, and in no age, have these changes been wrought with so great celerity as in the southern States.

MIDNIGHT MISSILES.

LAST NIGHTS DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY NEWS.

Attempt Upon the Life of the Spanish Consul in New York—The Raber Murderers Hanged—Old Ex-Senator Bayard Dying—Other Late News.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The dastardly attempt made yesterday by some party or parties to kill the Spanish Consul, General Hypolito D. Uriarte. It appears that when his letters were brought to his office among them was a package about 8 inches by 3, and the Consul attempted to open it when it exploded and balls of fire shot out, burning the carpet and the Consul's coat and hands but doing no other damage. An examination showed that the box contained gun powder and a large percussion cap which was supposed to be nitra glycerine and arranged to explode when the top was taken off. It was post-marked at Philadelphia and New York—supposed to be the Cuban plot to kill the Spanish official.

The Raber Murderers Hanged.

LEBANON PA. May 13.—Brandt, Hammel and Wise, the Raber murderers where hanged this morning.

Thomas F. Bayard's Father Dying.

By Telegraph to the News.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 13.—Ex-Senator James A. Bayard is much weaker to-day and apparently sinking rapidly. He resists the efforts of his attendants to give him nourishments and it is feared without an effort on his part to rally his life can be prolonged but a few days.

Candidate for the Halter.

By Telegraph to the News.

GALVESTON, May 13.—A News special from Huntsville Texas says: Judge Wood yesterday sentenced A. E. Carter alias L. B. Jones, to be hanged July 2, for murder of W. K. Spaulding.

Ex-Gov. Henry S. Foote dying.

By Telegraph to the News.

NASHVILLE, May 13.—Ex-Governor Henry S. Foote, Superintendent of the United States Mint, at New Orleans is reported lying at the point of death, at his residence five miles from this city. He has been afflicted with cancer of the scalp, and confined to his room for several weeks past.

Fire Record.

By Telegraph to the News.

BEDFORD PA. May 13.—The fire again started at the head of foster brook valley yesterday. That section is thickly studed with derricks and tanks, the wind was blowing a gale and the fire swept over the ridge consuming everything in its path, the continuing fire swept down Tramhollow, a prolific portion of the oil field, burning right small tanks and buildings and villages of the oil center and Middangeville with exception of one or two houses were entirely destroyed at ten o'clock last night. 25,000 barrells of iron tank on Litchel and Jones streets was in flames. But no villages being located near the danger from that source was not great. The baker trestle on Kendall and Eldred railroad, 5,0000 barrels, tank took fire. The town of Duke Center a place of 1,000 inhabitants was threatened but still safe at midnight.

LONDON, May, 13.—A Vienna dispatch, says Granville's note and Gladstone's letter met with much appreciation here. Granville recently, warmly assured Count Karolyi, that the British Government was animated by the most sincere desire to cultivate friendly relations with Austria. And he also expressed his satisfaction at the Austro-German understanding.

George Eliot's Life.

The exceptional life of George Eliot now at last appears to enter the commonplace, even the vulgar—if the brief dispatch be true that announces her marriage to "a Mr. Cross." She has lived many years with the philosopher Lewes without marriage ceremony, and that has been forgiven by the most of us, easy moralists, who sighed, but quoted Shakespeare (somewhat beside the sense) saying—

"Let me not be the marrage of true minds Admit impediments,"

—such as a living Mrs. Lewes. Mr. Lewes undoubtedly thought his unfaithful wife no wife, although the courts would not divorce him since he had forgiven her and lived with her after her first infidelity. And Marian Evans and friends of both the parties agreed with him. Whether the real Mrs. Lewes be dead yet or not, no one seems to know, we believe she is alive, in a private insane asylum, but at any rate George Eliot, though called Mrs. Lewes for many years, styled herself "spinster," and signed herself "Marian Evans," when she qualified as executrix of Lewes's will. It is not quite a year and a half since the Comtist philosopher died; then his mate and disciple, who had loved him to the detriment to the degradation of her style, was said to be sick with grief, and to have dropped her pen forever. If she has really married a Mr. Cross perhaps she may write again, and improve upon that dreary farewell. "The Impressions of "Theophrastus Such," with something fresh and fashionable and ordinary—like Braddon, for instance. But there is no knowing what direction the reacting influence may take.

Sent But Not Gaudy.

Washington Post.

Senator Conkling congratulated Senator Vest the other day by telling him that his speech on the Kellogg case was the best he had ever heard from "that side of the chamber." The qualification may be termed neat, but not gaudy.

DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

CONKLIN calls the statements made about the defections in the ranks of the Grant delegates to Chicago, "colossal lying."

WASHBURNE is called by the Grantites the Judas Iscariot of the Republican party. He is a "thorn in the side" of the ex-President. The Grant boom weakens daily.

HENDERSON and Oxford are about to be telephonically connected. The young fellows of Henderson can then discourse with the Oxford girls. How nice.

THE Altemarle Times says that Judge Mills L. Eure can carry the First District by at least fifteen thousand votes. People don't all think alike.

THE Atlanta Constitution says: "The baby elephant is cutting its teeth on the cheek of a prominent Pennsylvania republican. In the economy of nature in North America, even a Pennsylvania republican has his uses."

THE Spanish Consul Hypolita DeUriart, of New York, came near being killed in that city yesterday. In opening a package it exploded. It was supposed to have been the work of a Cuban revolutionist.

IT is reported that Gen. B. F. Butler says he'll carry Massachusetts for Justice Field if the Democrats will nominate him.

Benny is an irrepressible old boy, any how.

JIM BLAINE is said to have fathered the following little versicle and dedicated it to Jack Sherman:

—Put away the little boomlet
That John Sherman used to boss;
He will never, never need it—
John's no longer a dark hoss.

THE English heart grows sicker and fainter with waiting for news from the training ship atlanta. This ship had a crew of three hundred boys that were being trained for the English Naval service. Our heart goes out in sympathy to their stricken parents of these poor boys.

THE 24th of June, St. John's Day, will be celebrated at the Orphan Assylum at Oxford. James W. Reid, Esq, will deliver an address at 11 o'clock. Addresses will also be made by the Grand Master of the Masons and other prominent gentlemen. We wish the young folks a good time.

IREDELL county has voted a subscription of ten thousand dollars by a majority vote of nearly ten to one for the building of the W. S. and M. Railroad.

The sooner our state is webbed from the mountains to the seaboard by railroads the sooner will the bright sunlight of prosperity shed in joy-giving, poverty destroying rays upon our people. God speed this good work.

WE are glad to note that business is improving not only in this country but on the other side of the water as well.

Recent returns of the English board of trade show an increase in imports and exports of $199 186,145 for the year ending May 1, as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

More business booms and fever political ones will be better for the country.

THE ecumenical council of the various Methodist bodies will meet in London next summer. It will no doubt be one of the most imposing gatherings of this century. Every branch of Methodism will be included.

The delegation of the church south will be headed by Bishop McTyiere, of Tennessee.

HENRI WATTERSON of the Louisville Courier Journal has got a bad case of Sam Tilden, read what he says: "Mr. Tilden is an idea, an issue, a quantum in American politics which cannot be ignored. He cannot be suppressed. He could not suppress himself. If he should publish a letter to-morrow positively interdicting the use of his name, it would not clarify or simplify the situation."

THE following very pertinent questions are asked by an exchange. "would the feelings of northern republicans be outraged if Senator Bruce were to be nominated for the second place on the ticket at Chicago? Surely the colored brethren are entitled to a little consideration of this sort from the North. O do the northern republicans believe with the white southern republicans that the colored man has a perfect right to vote only when he votes to place a white man in office."

AT a meeting of the Stockholders of the Murfreesboro Wesleyan Female College last week it was decided to rebuild the College, and the following committees were appointed:

Committee to solicit stock: Judge D A Barnes, Rev Wm Grant, Col J N Harrell, J N Lawrence, W D Pruden, Rev F C Woodward, S F Pearce and Rev W H Christian.

Committee on correspondence: J M Wynn, J C Lawrence, and D A Barnes.

Work will commence at an early day on the buildings.

CELEBRATION OF THE BATTLE OF ALAMANCE.

The celebration of the battle of Alamance, or rather the unveiling of a monument erected on the battle field in honor to the memory of the victims of that conflict, is intended more as a local recognition of the event than as a general observance. Yet it is an occasion which can inspire the patriotic interest of the whole State, for though the actors in the tragedy were mostly of the vicirage, the principles that impelled them were the seeds that soon grew to rank growth in all the colonies. Invincible purpose to resist oppression in any form, to disobey unconstitutional laws at any peril, to defy tyranical officials at any risk, these were the impelling powers to a course of action which in ime embraced the people of the whole continent, and ended in the birth of a great, free, and independent nation.

The battle of Alamance was unquestionably the opening gun of the great revolutionary battles. Disaster on that fieid did not annihilate the principles involved, nor convince the defeated combatants of any error. On the contrary, the hatred of arbitrary power as its effects were illustrated by the crnel and unscrupulous use of military force and the still more cruel and wanton subsequent abuse of the machinery of civil authority convinced the whole people that their only alternative was to do or die; to perish like freemen or live like slaves.

The results of their selection of alternatives are around us. And now on the 16th of May will be a commemoration of that eventful conflict of the 16th of May, 1771, interest in which we hope will not be confined solely to the citizens of the surrounding country.

My Wholesale Department

Is full and complete, and well filled with just the goods you want, call and see me before you buy, and I will save you money.

And here allow me to say a few words to my friends and customers, I claim that there is no house that can afford to sell or will sell the same class of goods cheaper than I can, for the following reasons, first, that I have been buying goods from the best houses in this country for the last thirty years, and second, because I have no four or five partners to divide profits with, and am perfectly willing to divide profits with my customers, and respectfully ask them to come to Creech's.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

ave Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they could fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHEUM,

Covering the Body for Ten Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON,
17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb 28, 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body and limbs with its peculiar irritation and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease have been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent. Gains 5 1-2 pounds on One Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 179 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. I is doing the business, and I am going for it strong.

Yours truly,
JOHN H. ROY
114 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878.

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

STARVATION IN IRELAND. No fear of that while we offer the present inducement. Agents can make $20 weekly, and it will be their own fault if they do not clear $50.

See Here!

Newspapers are printed to read everybody knows that; but they are supposed to be first read by the parties who take them—very few seem to know this. We are curs—ah, blessed with several "intimate friends" who make a daily practice of visiting our "sanctum sanctorium" and running through and throwing around our exchanges before the editors have had an opportunity of ever getting a peep into them.

Now we try to be as obliging and accommodating as we consistently can; are noted for our harmless disposition but we are very much afraid if these fellows keep on in their wickedness we will soon find ourselves figuring in the police court reports.

Gentlemen don't, Please, "don't—do that."

The Twentieth of May in Durham.

After a pleasant and harmonious session, the Lodge adjourned late yesterday evening sine die.

Something about Stamps.

Under the postal laws, if you spoil a stamped wrapped or envelope you can have it redeemed at its face felue at the post office. When postal cards were introduced postmasters were instructed to redeem such as were spoiled before using at the rate of four cents in stamps for every five cents in face value of the cards. Many postal cards are spoiled in printing, others in direction, while many printing cards are simply unused These can all be exchangad at the rate mentioned. A strangor appeared at the Louisville post office last week with one or twa thousand of these postal cards per day for several days in succession. The cards were redeemed, but there were so many the stamp clerk inquired, to satisfy his curiosity, where the stranger got them. He said he was buying them up at various business houses, paying forty and fifty cents per hundred for the useless cards. Sometimes he paid as high as sixty cents, and offered one flim seventy cents for a large lot, but it was refused. He had evidently been operating in Indianapolis recently, as he had a large number of cards with Indianapolis firms printed on them. During the three or four days he presented five or six thousand for redemption and made a profit of about $25.

A Doctor Prescribed For.

Not a thousand miles from the Capitol dwells a M. D. of considerable note. Sometime since he was sent for to attend a sick Irishman, whom for short, of course—we will call Pat.

The Doctor arrived, examined the pulse of the patient and shook his head three times at a dollar a shake; then left after leaving ten "powders," one to be taken every ten minutes When he called next day he enquired of the patient:

"You took the powders?"

"Narry powder" responded Pat.

"Why did'nt you take them sir," exclaimed the wrathful doctor.

"I ain't no cannon, nor fourth of July or the battle of Waterloo, nayther; and I should loike ter kno, be gorra why it is I am to be touched off with yer mutherin powder!" shouted the patient with equal rage. One word brought on another, until a fight ensued, in which the doctor got thro n out of the window and landed in a tub of soap suds.

Pat shouted this prescription at the retreating form of the doctor:

"Aqua rainum, 20 gal., Soapum Turpentinum, 4 lbs.,—cools the blood and cures fits of anger"—the M. D. took a note.
